

Press release

NewPort opens up their own office in India

Mumbai – March 2015.

The leading Global Tank Container Operator NewPort announces the opening of their own office in Mumbai, India. They are the first global tank container operator with an own office in India, with the goal to further grow their position in the Indian market.

Their new office supports the global growth strategy, allowing them to give the “best in class” service to their Indian customers and further develop the local market. The office opened in early 2015.

After a period of preparation, NewPort opened in Mumbai (Andheri) and sees great potential in the Indian market. “Opening NewPort India Pvt. Ltd. supports our global growth strategy” says Michael de Rijk, CEO of NewPort Tank Containers. “Our goal is to get closer to our customers, especially in key markets around the globe. Through our own global office network, we’re able to develop a stronger relationship with our customers which allows us to support our customer’s strategic initiatives”

Rob van Mourik, Vice President EMEA of NewPort Tank Containers adds “until last year NewPort was working with a local agency in India so we know the market well. More importantly, we see the potential to further develop our presence in the Indian market. Our experienced local team enables us to ensure consistent quality service to our customers.”

Head Quartered in the Netherlands, NewPort has owned offices in USA, Mexico, Brazil, France, Germany, Dubai, Saudi Arabia, India, Korea, China, Singapore and Australia. The company in India is established as NewPort India Pvt. Ltd. with an office address at B205, Dynasty Business Park Andheri Kurla Rd Mumbai 400056. With this year’s expansion of owned offices, NewPort has strengthen their global network supporting the international and local markets.